THE SPRING CAMPAIGN.

Republican Ward Canvases Last Evening.
 -Faction of the Democratic Party.
 -Nominally that Republicans should Believe Themselves.

Jacky January's claim, referred to in Friday's issue, that he had a string on the Democratic nomination for Mayor proved well-founded, the ticket nominated being that indicated by the GLOBE-REPUBLIC several weeks ago in a little account of the doings of a "recreant" cabal which met one evening about that time. That slate included Billy Mills for Street Commissioner, but Jo. Bolan had not then decided to become a candidate. Smith and his crowd, which is the same which boasted the little Boss Constantine into power two years ago, began their campaign within fifteen minutes after the convention, Friday night, had completed its cut and dried business. The adjournment was practically as near to Billy O'Brien's saloon and it is matter of common rumor that the illustrious head of the ticket had to be escorted home from the "ovation." The very next day the managers of Smith and O'Brien's campaign began working the saloonists who are to be bled freely for campaign funds, of which several thousand dollars are to be raised and used.
 Already overtures are being made wherever it is thought possible to effect anything with the supposed purchasable elements in the Republican ranks. Our reporter was told by one colored man, Saturday, that five dollars had been offered him to support the Democratic ticket, but they were not to be taken, but they were to be used for the wrong passenger that time. The great danger is that, basing their judgment upon the heavy Republican majorities of last October and November, the Republicans will be back in fancied security and neglect their duty, even to the extent of remaining away from the polls on election day, with the result of giving the city an administration for the next two years beside which that of Constantine would be the pink of perfection, especially if, by any of those accidents which occur in the best regulated families, the Democracy should gain control of the City Council. It must be remembered that the Republican majority is not ordinarily over 500 or 600, and the change of a few score of votes and inattention of any portion of Republican voters is all that is necessary to reverse that entire in a single election. Jacky Smith is working the same racket now that he met with success in keeping him in possession of the magistracy's office—playing the "independent" dodge. He will represent himself to be as much a Republican as a Democrat, and promise anything, possible or impossible.
 The fact is he is totally unworthy of and disqualified for the office he seeks, and it would be to the everlasting disgrace of the city if he were elected its mayor. It will not do, either, to depend upon disaffection in the Democratic ranks, or which something is heard just now.
 Experience proves that Democrats vote the Democratic ticket, and it is for Springfield Republicans to turn out and vote the Republican ticket April 6, if they would avoid making one of the most serious mistakes of their lives.

Ninth Ward Canvases.

The Republicans of the Ninth ward held their caucus last evening at No. 404 West Main street, which has been secured as ward headquarters and in which polls will be opened election day. There was an attendance of about fifty. C. A. Roberts was elected chairman and Frank Whiteley secretary. For Councilman B. F. K. Jennings was re-nominated, receiving on total 18 votes to 13 for Edward Schmidt, of Schmidt & Kramer, cracker bakers. Mr. Schmidt was then nominated by acclamation for member Board of Education. No nomination was made for Assessor, the candidacy of Samuel Ayers, the independent candidate against D. T. White, the Democratic nominee, being endorsed.

The Prohibitionists of the Fifth ward met last evening at the office of O. M. Sellers and made the following nominations: Councilman, S. W. Martin; Board of Education, George W. Crowell; Assessor, Frank Riccaman.

Third Ward Republican Canvases.

Quite certainly the largest and probably the liveliest of the ward caucuses was that of the Third ward Republicans, at the Central engine house last evening. Over two hundred voters, representing all interests, were present, closely packing the house, and distribution of ballots was carried on at a furious rate by candidates and their friends.
 Promptly at the hour announced Committeeman R. J. Beck called to order, and proposed Judge John C. Miller for chairman, which nomination was confirmed by vote, Luther Young and O. B. Trout were made secretaries. A motion was made and voted down to make nominations for the ward ticket in reverse order; that is, assessor first, member Board of Education next and Council last.
 For Council, the names presented were J. L.
 Kidder, Martin L. Rice and B. F. Funk. The voters passed around in front of the secretaries and, after the chairman had called the voter's name, his ballot was deposited. Mr.
 Kidder was nominated for Council on the first ballot, the vote standing, Kidder 137, Rice 57, Funk 11.
 For member Board of Education, long time, the only name presented was that of Wm. H. Warren, and, on motion, that gentleman was nominated by acclamation, the announcement being the signal for hearty applause. For short term the names proposed were T. B. Flago and J. D. Hurd. Mr. Flago was nominated on the first ballot, receiving 133 votes to 14 for Hurd.

A. Waters received almost the solid vote for assessor, there being one only for a colored man named Coffey. The caucus then adjourned.

The alarm of fire, mentioned elsewhere, was turned in just as the result of the ballot on School Board members was about to be announced. There was no panic but the liveliest getting out of there ever did see. The alert and wide-awake Central firemen were prepared for such an emergency and, although the house was crowded so managed that nobody was hurt. The "trip" arrangement opening the stall doors had been thrown out of gear and the horses were led out and to the place, the delay not amounting to half a minute. There was a similar scene at the caucus in the same place one year ago.

First ward Republicans met in the Sheriff's office last night with an unusually large attendance and everybody in good spirits over the prospects for a sweeping victory at the April poll. J. S. Miles was chairman of the caucus and James Heaton secretary. For Council Morris Teehan, a staunch Republican Irishman, was put in nomination, and for Assessor Thomas O'Brien, another of the same sort and a veteran soldier besides. It was decided to make any nomination for School Board. It is believed the ticket nominated can be made to win at the election.

The Seventh ward Democrats met, after all, been first place for a big turnout and particularly lively proceedings. There were 249 in attendance, and the way the crowd tumbled over each other and smashed the furniture when the fire alarm from box 8 came in made the people think there was a regiment at full charge. One badly scared citizen leaped bodily through a window, ash and all. In the scramble—needles, by the way—to get away from the house as they were run out, men fell half a dozen in a heap, the stove was overturned, the gas fixtures broken, and other damage done which it has taken the men at the engine house all of today to repair. The following nominations were made: Council, Edward McCann, a molder; School Board, Howard Hotchkiss; Assessor, Thomas Burke.

Fourth ward Republicans should remember their meeting tonight to nominate a candidate for School Board in place of E. G. Dial, who declined the nomination.

There will be a meeting of the Republican Executive Committee tomorrow evening at W. M. Beckel's law office, which it is imperative every member should attend. The hour will be half-past seven.

Thursday evening the Eighth ward Republicans held their caucus to nominate ward officers, and a full turnout is requested.
